

Open lectures of the Binh Duong University rector at the GSBM

On November 12 and 17, the rector of the Binh Duong University (Vietnam) Kao Viet Hieu held guest lectures for the students of the Graduate School of Business and Management on the topic of Globalization and Global Economic Development. During the lectures, the professor highlighted such aspects as the advantages and disadvantages of globalization, Industry 4.0, sharing economics, the impact of global warming on the economy and industries, examples of trade relations in Vietnam and much more.

Moreover, a meeting was held with Igor Ilin, Director of the Graduate School of Business and Management, Nikita Lukashevich, Deputy head for international affairs of IMET, Alexandra Borremans, Deputy head for international affairs of GBSM, and the rector of the Binh Duong University. During the meeting, the sides discussed the possibilities of joint scientific, publication and grant activities.